EASTER MUSIC THORN CROWNED KING

HEAR IT AT MICHELSON MEMORIAL CHURCH SUNDAY NIGHT

The Easter Cantata, "The Thorn-Crowned King" to be given by Michelson Memorial church will be presented next Sunday night, April 1st. Owing to the intended absence of a number of the choir singers at Easter time the program is being offered a week earlier than customary for such a program.

An introductory number, "The Great Heavenly Choir," by Jordan, will be sung by Mr. E. H. Webb who has a remarkable tenor voice. This will prelude a wonderful program of sacred music. Other numbers on the program are as follows:

"Let the Righteous be Glad," Opening chorus by the choir.

"He Chooses the Cross of Shame," Alto solo by Mrs. Harold Jarmin.

"There Was No Other Way," Men's voices.

"Betrayed," Choir and tenor solo by Harold Jarmin.

"The Thorn-Crowned King," Soprano solo by Mrs. Roy D. Milnes.

"Let Him Be Crucified," Choir with bass solo by J. Fred Alexander.

"Nailed to the Cross," Duet by Rev. Greenwood and Mr. E. H. Webb.

"Alas! And Did My Savior Bleed," Trio of women's voices.

"They Laid Him Away," Choir and soprano by Mrs. Charles Gothro, and choir and tenor solo by Mr. Webb.

"Have Faith in God," Tenor and alto duet, Mr. and Mrs. Jarmin.

"He Is Risen," Choir and bass solo by Mr. W. W. Lewis.

"Glory In the Garden," Choir and soprano and alto duet by Mrs. Milnes and Mrs. H. J. Gothro, and soprano and alto duet by the Misses Marie Schmidt and Vella Hermann.

"Jesus Lives," Choir and quartet Mrs. Milnes, Mrs. Jarmin, Mr. Jarmin and Mr. Alexander, and Mrs. Charles Gothro, Mrs. H. J. Gothro, Mr. Webb and Mr. Lewis.

"Praise Ye the Lord," Final chorus. The cantata is under direction of Mrs. C. G. Clippert, which is an assurance of its success. All have been working hard on the program for several weeks and it gives promise of a very excellent musical treat and spiritual inspiration. Everybody is invited and it looks as tho every seat in the church would be filled. Come early and be assured of a seat. Many from neighboring cities who have heard of the affair have promised to attend.

LITTLE GIRL DIES

Most unexpected and heart-rending to her parents and many others was the death of little Linda Marie, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smock, that occurred last Sunday afternoon. The little girl had been sick for over a week, but her illness did not become alarming until a few minutes before her death, as she had been able to be up and around a part of each day. She was idolized by her parents, and a favorite with everyone who knew her, and young friends to the funeral, which was held Wednesday, her little body resting in a casket in the midst of a bed of flowers in her home, was viewed by many and was a sight not soon to be forgotten.

The funeral was held from St. Mary's church with a requiem high mass, the choir singing the usual mass hymns. Mrs. Frank Tetu beautifully sang "Teach Me to Pray" following which Fr. Colligan, paying a beautiful tribute to the parents, delivered a most impressive sermon. Interment was made in Elmwood cemetery, the funeral being largely attended by friends of the family. Besides her parents the little girl is survived by three brothers, Donald, Howard and Robert, her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Reynolds, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Smock of Frederic, several uncles, aunts and cousins. Those from out of town in attendance at the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Smock of Frederic, Harry Reynolds of Elmira, Mrs. Guy Reid and daughter Dorothy of Twinning.

Thought for the Week

Richard Watson Gilder has sung for us these haunting lines:

"If Jesus Christ is a man—
And only a man—I say—
Then of all mankind I cleave to him,
And to him will I cleave always.
If Jesus Christ is a God—
And the only God—I swear—
I will follow him through heaven and hell,
The earth, the sea, the air."

GRAYLING MASON'S HOLD LARGE MEETING

Grayling Lodge P. and A. M. had a big meeting on Thursday night of last week when three well known candidates took the third degree initiation—T. P. Peterson, Howard Granger and Alfred Bobb. The meeting began at 4:30 o'clock p. m.

At about 6:30 a banquet was served in the banquet room by the ladies of the Eastern Star. The tables served 90 men and the dinner was excellent, as might be expected.

Dr. C. R. Keyport acted as toastmaster and filled the station in a very clever manner. He was able to take the rebuffs offered him in the same pleasant manner in which he introduced the speakers. It was hit and run on both sides and helped to make a program of wit and Masonic inspiration. Among the speakers were: Jess Green, master of Roscommon lodge; Dr. C. C. Carnalin, Roscommon; Charles Trueblood and Adam Ludwig, Alpena; Frank DeLaMater, master of Gaylord lodge; Rev. J. W. Greenwood and T. P. Peterson, Grayling.

The second section of the initiatory work was conducted by the fellowcraft team of Gaylord lodge and was very ably executed. Dr. and Will Curaglia of Roscommon lodge gave the Masonic lectures.

This was probably the finest meeting held by Grayling lodge this year, and Clayton Strachly, master of the lodge is to be congratulated upon the excellent showing the lodge is making under his stewardship. Many outside lodges were represented at the meetings: Gaylord, Roscommon, Chocomaun, Alpena and other cities.

The Politicians Are Listening In

NEXT MONDAY IS TOWNSHIP ELECTION

Next Monday, April 2nd is election day for the several townships of the county. At that time the following officers will be elected for each of the several townships in the county: Supervisor, clerk, treasurer, highway commissioner, member of the Board of Review, Justice of the Peace, overseers of highways and constables.

Besides the above township officers there will be primary election for nomination of president of the United States. Herbert Hoover appears on the Republican ticket and Alfred Smith in the Democratic.

These officers are very important for they have to do with the administration of the respective townships. And the supervisors, in a body, make up the county board of supervisors and administer the affairs of the county.

Grayling township is presenting a Republican and a Democratic ticket. There is plenty of opportunity for selecting good men for the positions to which they aspire. The main thing is to select men who are trustworthy and honest.

Abraham Lincoln once said, when asked to defend a law suit: "I can't take your case for I would have to be to the jury and I just can't do it. There are few people in the world just as conscientious as Lincoln, still we believe most men are honest. It can be as used of getting honest men to fill our offices that is the best we can do and with such to administer our public affairs we can at least be assured of honest service. These men spend our money and it is up to us to vote as wisely as we know how to."

Next it is time to elect a jury. People get out to vote, or you may leave the city before election or are unable to go to the polls for good reasons, ask the township clerk for an absent voters ballot. Do this promptly. If you need a notary to sign your affidavit, there are two at the Avalanche office ready to give the same without cost.

Let's have a big vote that day, all over the county. Let the elections be ruled by the masses—the better.

TO PLANT TROUT IN SOUTHERN MICHIGAN

A considerable number of German brown trout will be planted in the streams of southern Michigan this spring.

Spring, Fred A. Westerman, Superintendent of State Hatcheries, has announced. It is expected that all told the hatchery at Benton Harbor will provide 500,000 fry and the same number is expected to be available at the Comstock Park hatchery at Grand Rapids.

Investigation has shown that there are many small streams in the southern section of the state that are adapted to trout. Representatives of the hatcheries have been engaged for some time in making a survey of the streams of the State so that in time the Department of Conservation will have very accurate information as to the characteristics of the various streams. This survey will make the distributing of the available supply of fry much more simplified than it now is.

Blue Creek, the stream on which the Benton Harbor plant is located, last year yielded a 20-inch rainbow trout. The specimen has been preserved at the hatchery.

Remember the good old days when the only kind of girl who could camp a fellow was the one who knew how to make good biscuits and to bake her own bread?

BETTER HOMES WEEK APRIL 22-28

Washington, D. C., Secretary Hoover, in launching the seventh annual campaign of Better Homes in America, points out that of the three institutions charged with the task of character building—the home, the school and the church—the home exercises the first and most continuous influence on the moulding of lives. It is therefore of paramount importance to conserve and foster the home's higher value.

The 1928 campaign of Better Homes in America will be no exception. Six previous campaigns have demonstrated the readiness of citizens throughout the land to respond to an appeal to cooperate. Since those pioneer days the movement has grown rapidly and solidly. Better Homes in America works through enlisting the cooperation of local committees in towns and rural communities in the task of demonstrating better houses and better ways of living in them. In the 1927 campaign nearly four thousand local committees gave unstintingly of their time and energy to the Better Homes demonstrations. The coming campaign will undoubtedly pass the four-thousand mark in number of local committees participating. It is significant of the profoundness of the interest in home betterment in America that rarely does a community which has once taken part in a Better Homes campaign fail to participate regularly in the campaign of following years.

Better Homes in America maintains its central office in Washington, D. C. Secretary Hoover is its president, President Coolidge, chairman of its Advisory Council, and Dr. James Ford of the faculty of Harvard University, its active executive head. Nearly a score of others, cabinet members and civic leaders of national reputation, aid as advisors or directors. Better Homes in America is supported by voluntary contributions.

The aim of the Better Homes campaign is of wide scope. First, the campaign tries to show its local committees how to build or to rebuild the home of the family. The smallest expenditure to obtain the best in healthful conditions, beauty and permanence of construction, and convenience in plan and equipment. In the 1927 campaign it is significant that out of 242 houses demonstrated the large majority cost less than $2,500 apiece. Many others very demonstrated—but their cost was not recorded. Secondly, the campaign spreads examples of artistic, inexpensive furniture and decorations, gardens and lawns. Thirdly, the campaign encourages thrift particularly in the direction of home ownership; and aid is given by local committees in household budgeting, labor saving devices are demonstrated, home music, home arts and crafts and hand reading are stimulated.

Women's clubs, civic clubs, parent-teacher associations, chambers of commerce, and a score of similar organizations in the various communities join in the local campaigns, which will culminate in a national Better Homes Week, April 22 to 28, 1928.

Prospective purchasers of resort property or other lands to be used for recreational purposes in Michigan will find in the economic land survey division of the state conservation Department a service adapted to their needs. With maps that this Division is now beginning to turn out, it is possible for an individual to sit in his own office or home and learn practically all the needed information concerning any piece of property.

Among other things, these maps reveal the type of soil, the lay of the land, whether it is cultivated, the number of dwellings in the vicinity, the names of land owners, the extent of their holdings, the condition of the roads, and the accessibility of such public utilities as railroads, power and communication. When this Department has completed mapping an area, every body of water is incorporated completely as to its adaptability to various uses. Even the bottoms and shores of the lakes come in for scrutiny.

Of course the Department is only getting a foothold. The job is only in its infancy. At present, complete information is available only on Ogemaw and Antrim counties. Material on three other counties, namely, Alcona, Roscommon and Menominee, has been gathered and is in the hands of the printers. Anyone desiring to obtain information about any particular piece of land in Antrim or Alcona County may have it by securing these maps. Maps are available for every township and may be purchased for a small sum.

By studying the map, the prospective purchaser may see its detailed picture unfold before his eyes. This feature is of particular value to those who desire to learn about the physical characteristics of the land.

If George Washington were to come back now, walk along Pennsylvania Avenue and see a modern flapper strolling in roller skates with her legs is he wouldn't be just a little sorry that he saved the country?

THURSDAY, MARCH 29, 1928

SENATOR WOODBRIDGE "N. FERRIS" who died at Washington last week, was laid to rest in his home city of Big Rapids Tuesday.

While his passing is an irreparable loss to Michigan and to his country, Grayling has a special reason to feel the loss. This community is deeply indebted to Mr. Ferris for the great work his school—Ferris Institute—has done for hundreds of our boys and girls. For years the offices in this city have been enriched with graduates from his wonderful school. And the enviable personal qualities that have been his all through these many years have been passed on to the boys and girls who were fortunate enough to come under his influence. His students swore by Mr. Ferris and his splendid personal example has been deeply instilled into these young people, and has been the inspiration to nobler, better lives.

And too, by his stand while in the executive chair of the State Governor Ferris saw to it that the legislature gave proper consideration to the military bill that gave Grayling its Hanson State Military Reservation. Political jockeying and trickery were forced aside and, in spite of the organized effort to down the Grayling bill, it was forced before both houses where it found no trouble in passing. The Grayling bill, we firmly believe, would have been killed had it not been for the timely action on the part of Governor Ferris and of House Speaker Gilbert Carr. The Reservation has meant much to Grayling and to this part of Michigan, and those who knew of Governor Ferris' assistance in bringing about the passing of the Grayling Military bill will be forever grateful toward him ever since.

Senator Ferris is dead. Newspapers everywhere have extended most profound eulogy, all of which is richly deserved. Grayling too will retain many fond memories of him—memories of his many visits to this community, to our schools, and to our homes and places of business, and for the material things that he extended, all linger long among those who were privileged to know of them and to come into communication with him. He was a great teacher; he was a great governor, and an able United States Senator, and he was a true friend of the people. His death closes a rich, well spent life. We are sorry indeed that he is gone.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY ASKS E. M. T. HELP

(By E. M. T. Service)

Dr. George N. Fuller, secretary of the Michigan Historical Society, has asked T. E. Marston, secretary-manager of the East Michigan Tourist Association, to accept responsibility for the changes in names of rivers, streams and lakes to nomenclature more appealing and aesthetic. Dr. Fuller suggests that changes be made with the thought in mind of historical or legendary applications instead of the meaningless and frequently antagonistic names now in vogue in many cases. The directors of the East Michigan Tourist Association at a meeting early in the year had taken action regarding the program. Mr. Marston would like to receive suggestions as to changes and reasons for the suggested changes.

Detroit, March 20.—Featuring two daily concerts by Lieutenant-Commander John Philip Sousa and his famous band of 70 internationally known musicians and soloists, the Michigan State Fair will open its 79th annual exhibition here Sunday, September 2, continuing through Saturday, September 8th.

Sousa's band, noted for the playing of its famous director's march compositions, will be heard by the public at a 25-cent admission charge which includes entrance to the grounds and many of its attractions. Ordinarily, Sousa's concerts range in admission prices as high as four dollars.

On Sunday afternoon Sousa will give a sacred concert, following in the evening by a patriotic program assisted by Boy Scout and Camp Fire Girl organizations and units of the Michigan National Guard. No Midway shows or amusements will be open on Sunday.

The remaining six days of the week Sousa will give concerts in the Grove daily in the afternoon, and in the coliseum, in conjunction with the horseshow, in the evening. No charge will be made at the Coliseum entrance in the evening. The interior layout of the coliseum will give the public a unique opportunity to hear the concert, although for those who desire seats will be available at 25, 50 and 75 cents.

Eighteen of the most expensive and highest type of vaudeville acts ever engaged by a State Fair will appear daily, both afternoon and evening, in front of the grandstand with the exception of Sunday. Al Sweet and his famous band from Chicago, will appear with the vaudeville entertainers. This is the most elaborate and expensive entertainment program in the State Fair's history.

In the evening the majestic fireworks spectacle—"A Night in Bagdad"—a super-production of the Theatre Duffield Fireworks Co., will appear nightly, in addition to the impressive vaudeville program of 18 acts.

This Oriental fantasy—the most striking display of fireworks and set pieces ever produced to date—will portray the streets, walls and buildings of the ancient city of Bagdad in all its mysterious and beautiful splendor. A specially trained ballet—much enlarged over the previous year—will be seen during the presentation of night life in Bagdad, lending exotic charm to the scene.

Three harness races will be held in front of the grandstand, on five afternoons during the week—from Monday to Friday inclusive. A spectacular automobile race, with some of the best known drivers in the country, will be staged on Saturday afternoon under official sanction of the American Automobile Association. All these events will be in addition to the daily vaudeville features.

Rubin and Cherry's Carnival Co., a 40-car midway show, will supply the attractions for the afternoon and evening sessions of the midway—larger and more extensive than ever before. These offerings will be of the highest calibre, with absolutely no features that would be objectionable.

Exhibits of farm products, machinery, home economic displays and various departments of the state industries, will be housed in more completely equipped and better lighted buildings than in any preceding fair.

Daily livestock judging will be held in the Coliseum. At the evening horseshow in the Coliseum, scores of Detroit's most noted society leaders and millionaires will put their horses and jumpers through their paces for the coveted ribbons. A different class of horse will be featured each night and the jumping exhibit will bring many noted horses from other cities.

Admission to the fair remains the same for the year—25 cents. Children under 10 will be admitted free. Automobiles will be charged 25 cents at the special automobile entrance with free and practically unlimited parking space.

The fair this year will set a new high record for both the quality and number of its amusement offerings, according to Manager Fred A. Chapman, with Sousa's world famous band the stellar attraction of the week's entertainment.

THRIFT AN ESSENTIAL OF SUCCESS WITH MOST OF OUR PRESIDENTS

(By S. W. Stauss, President American Society for Thrift.)

If you would learn a lesson in the constructive values of thrift, study the lives of our Presidents.

John Adams taught school as a young man to obtain money for his education in the law; Zachary Taylor labored as a boy on his father's southern plantation and had practically no early educational advantages. Millard Fillmore worked as a village school teacher and earned money to enable him to study law.

The early struggles of Abraham Lincoln and the disadvantages under which he became one of the greatest men of all times, are known the world over. As a boy Lincoln, "the rail-splitter," worked for ten years on his father's farm and it is said that all his schooling amounted to only one year. Andrew Jackson came from a poor family in North Carolina and as a boy was apprenticed for years to a tailor, during which time he taught himself to read and write.

James A. Garfield had practically no educational advantages as a young man and was compelled to maintain himself early in life by the hardest of farm labor. At one period he earned his livelihood by driving a team of mules for a canal boat.

Warren G. Harding started life as a farm boy in Ohio. For several years he earned his living as a typewriter, school teacher, insurance agent and newspaper reporter.

Calvin Coolidge's first job was a choice boy on his father's farm. He worked his way through college part of the time. His vacations were all spent earning money.

One might easily add to the list of our Presidents who have learned the value of thrift as an element of success. Hayes, Cleveland, McKinley and Wilson learned its value out of the book of their own early struggles.

These are not new facts. Every school boy should know them. Every young man beginning a business career should be reminded of these splendid examples of obstacles overcome.

NECKING WITH DEATH

By Erwin Greer
(President Greer School of Electricity and Automotive Trades, Chicago Ill.)
My friend glanced at the crowd of spectators gazing upward at the airplanes overhead, then turned to me with a grin. "Huh," he said, "there will be plenty of sun-burned palates in this crowd tonight."

But I couldn't see the humor in his remark. A girl's life was at stake. Suddenly some one shouted, "Watch!" for the ship overhead had signaled by wobbling her wings. I turned my binoculars upward.

A tiny figure crept out upon the top wing and stood erect—held that position. The ship dived and slid down hill at a terrific speed preparatory to entering the loop. And then it happened.

Inside down the girl seemed to lose hold and poised upon one foot like a toe dancer—seemed to dangle helplessly in the air—the 2000 foot fall being inevitable. But Lady Luck and a competent pilot saved the day by bringing the ship out of the half loop and scooping up the girl with the top wing which broke under the impact of her weight. The landing was made safely.

"I'll do it yet!" laughed the girl. "There is really no danger—provided the belt holds. I don't agree with her."

Few of you know or care anything about the finer points of the daredevil's work. You watch without interest the most skillful handling of an airplane. But let a chime fail to open, a wing crack or a stunter slip and you have got your money's worth.

A daredevil differs from ordinary folk," said the girl to me. "Only because he or she has mastered fear—the psychology of fear. Add to that the careful consideration of all the factors in your stunt, top it with supreme confidence in yourself, and you can perform what most people wrongly regard as mad deeds. Anyone can walk fifty feet on a plank that is laid upon the ground but lift that plank and feel in the air and one must have reason to bear upon an instinct that doubts the ability to do simple things."

"My life is not the kind that merits low insurance rates. I haven't the least idea how long I shall be able to continue with this work, and I have no illusions involved. Eventually an accident will happen, and then 'I will be a nobody!'"

USEFUL INFORMATION

When children say they do not like milk or eggs, they will often take them in other forms and not pay attention to the fact that they are eating the food they have objected to. Cereals, of course, are made of both milk and eggs. Milk-vegetable soups, white sauces served with other foods, and cocoa as a beverage are all ways of hiding the milk the children need. Eggs in such desserts as whip, Span cream, souffles, meringues and even in cake, are valuable additions to the diet and may be given in those ways when eggs are plentiful. Best of all, however, is the method of showing the children why they need certain foods, and so persuading them to eat what is set before them.

The held Colonel Lindbergh has on the hearts of Americans is well illustrated by the anxiety felt by many thousands of his admirers' lest he meet with disaster in the course of his flights. Many would have him continue much of his activity in the line in order to eliminate the possibility of mishap. It seems to us, however, that the New Haven Register has struck the right note when it says:

"Lindbergh has become a national hero. Any accident to him would be considered in the nature of a national calamity. But Lindbergh would not be Lindbergh if his wings were clipped."

It is pretty well known that Mayor William W. Hastings of New York City is almost invariably late for appointments.

Leon Errol, the well-known comedian, came back to town the other day. Gene Buck, a friend of Errol, met him at the train, and Errol said: "I'm all tired out. Gene. If Mayor Walker wants to see me, make an appointment for 9 in the morning. I want to sleep till noon."

A new and ingenious fake is being practiced on the uptown streets. An innocent-looking individual overtakes a pedestrian, holds out a good-looking fountain pen and says: "You dropped this pen." The victim usually "falls" for the game, as the pen looks expensive, and hands over a reward of from 50c to a dollar. The pen costs the faker 85 cents.

The Circuit Court for the County of Crawford, in Chancery.
In the matter of the petition of Oramel B. Fuller, Auditor-General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State, for the sale of certain lands for taxes assessed thereon.
On reading and filing the petition of the Auditor General of Michigan praying for a decree in favor of the State of Michigan, against each parcel of land therein described for the amounts therein specified, claimed to be due for taxes, interest and charges on each such parcel of land, and that such lands be sold for the amounts so claimed by the State of Michigan.

It is ordered that said petition will be brought on for hearing and decree at the April term of this Court, to be held at Grayling in the County of Crawford, State of Michigan, on the 10th day of April, A. (SEAL)

STATE OF MICHIGAN
To the Circuit Court for the County of Crawford in Chancery.
The petition of Oramel B. Fuller, Auditor-General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State respectfully shows that the list of lands hereinafter set forth and marked "Schedule A," contains a description of all lands in said County of Crawford upon which taxes were assessed for the years mentioned therein, and which were returned as delinquent for non-payment of taxes, and which taxes have not been paid together with the total amount of such taxes, with interest computed thereon to the time fixed for sale, and collection fee and expenses, as provided by law, extended against each of said parcels of land.

Your petitioner further shows to the Court that said lands were returned to the Auditor General under the provisions of Act 206 of the Public Acts of 1903, as delinquent for non-payment of said taxes for said year, respectively, and that said taxes remain unpaid; except that lands included in said "Schedule A" for taxes of 1890 or prior years were returned to the Auditor General as delinquent for said taxes under the provisions of the general tax laws in force prior to the passage of Act 200 of the Public Acts of 1891, and which taxes remain unpaid.

Your petitioner further shows that in all cases where lands are included in "Schedule A" as arrearage for taxes of 1890 or of any prior year, said lands have not been sold for said taxes or have been heretofore sold for said delinquent taxes and the sale or sales so made have been set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, or have been cancelled as provided by law.

Your petitioner further shows and avers that the taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses as set forth in said "Schedule A," are a valid lien on the several parcels of land described in said schedule.

Your petitioner further shows that the said taxes on the said described lands have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent, and the said taxes not having been paid and the same being now due and remaining unpaid as above set forth, your petitioner prays a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of said lands, for the payment of the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses, as computed and extended in said schedule against the several parcels of land contained therein, and in default of payment of the said several sums computed and extended against said lands, that each of said parcels of land may be sold for the amounts due thereon, as provided by law, to pay the lien aforesaid.

And your petitioner will ever pray, etc.
Dated February 4th, 1929.

ORAMEL B. FULLER,
Auditor General of the State of Michigan,
for and in behalf of said State.

It was probably the heaviest storm of the winter and much snow is still with us. Traffic was temporarily tied up and some of the cross highways are still difficult to travel on. Important Announcement to every owner of a Model T Ford

ON MAY 25, 1927, when Henry Ford first announced his plans for making a new car, he announced also that he would continue to make parts for the Model T Ford. He said:

"The Model T Ford car was a pioneer. It blazed the way for the motor industry and started the movement for good roads everywhere. It broke down the barriers of distance in rural sections, brought people in these sections closer together, and placed education within the reach of everyone. We are still proud of the Model T Ford. If we were not, we would not have continued to make it so long."

For twenty years, the Model T Ford led the automobile industry and it still serves more people than any other automobile. Over one-third of all the automobiles in use today are Model T Fords—an indication of the sturdy worth of the car and its value to people in all walks of life the world over.

The Ford Motor Company will continue to make replacement parts for these cars "until the last Model T is off the road." That is a part of Ford service. That is what Henry Ford meant when he said: "We believe that when a man buys one of our cars we should keep it running for him as long as we can and at the lowest up-keep cost."

Because of this policy a considerable part of the Ford manufacturing plants is given over to the making of parts for the Model T Ford. These replacement parts are made of the same material and in the same way as those from which your car was originally assembled.

Make it a point, therefore, to see the nearest Ford dealer and have him look over your Model T Ford. You may find that a very small expenditure will enable you to get thousands of miles of additional service, and at the same time protect the money you have invested in your car.

Another of the oldest residents of South Branch Township passed away Tuesday noon when J. H. Hartman died at the home of his son, Fred. Mr. Hartman came here in the late seventies and since that time has lived in this community continuously.

He had been in poor health for some time, and at the last developed pneumonia in his chest, which caused his death. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. J. H. Hartman, who owing to ill health has been spending the winter with her children in the southern part of the state, arrived Monday.

A number of neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Funch Saturday evening. All had a very pleasant time, spending the evening with dancing and cards.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd J. Funch was a happy place Thursday afternoon, March 22nd, when Robert's schoolmates gathered there to help him celebrate his tenth birthday. After playing games awhile, the fourteen children gathered around the long table which was decorated in pink and white. A large pink and white birthday cake, with ten pink candles, was the centerpiece. Favors and paper hats, and a pink basket filled with candy hearts, were at each place. Pink and white ice cream and pink lemonade helped to carry out the color scheme. The little people left for their homes, wishing Robert many happy returns of the day.

"THEY SATISFY"

From seven billion smoked in 1922 to twenty-eight billion smoked in 1927—sales doubled and redoubled all within five years. These are the startling figures announced by the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company for their ever-popular Chesterfield Cigarette.

This amazing growth, representing a gain of 300 per cent, signifies not only the universal preference for the cigarette as the smokers' choice, but the acceptance of this one particular brand as the popular favorite.

It is conservatively estimated that Chesterfield has acquired at least a million new users in a little over a year—certainly convincing proof that finer quality and better taste is substantially recognized by the cigarette smoking public.

This genuine testimonial for good tobacco and good blending is largely on Chesterfield's particularly pleasing flavor and taste. As it is stated in the advertisements, Chesterfield is "mild and yet they satisfy." In other words, the flavor has been so skillfully balanced as to eliminate any suggestion of harshness or bite, and yet leave enough richness and body to "let a smoker know he's smoking."

Nor is Chesterfield's rapid growth limited to the boundaries of the United States. Sales reports have revealed that this brand is world-wide in its acceptance, as shown by the fact that in practically all the principal cities of the world it is found to be among the leading sellers.

In fact, Chesterfield's world-wide recognition has given rise to another new advertising slogan which truthfully asserts that "the sun never sets on Chesterfield's popularity." With the added distinction that "Such popularity must be deserved" because of a taste and quality which won't smokers the world over and will continue to win them because it is what they want.

In current advertising, Liggett & Myers is making strong use of their oft-repeated "platform" in which they declare over their signature that it is their honest belief "that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield Cigarettes are of the finer quality and hence of better taste than in any other cigarette at the price."

"Next to income taxes, cigarette taxes are the most prolific source of revenue to the Government. And that's just one instance of what the emancipation of women has done for our national prosperity."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

MORE LAKES TO BE OPEN FOR EARLY FISHING

After thorough investigation of the existing conditions, by George Hognorth, Acting Director of the State Conservation Department, the Conservation Commission is convinced that its all-inclusive order closing inland lakes to fishing between April 1 to June 15 should be modified. This modification has been ordered. Several inland lakes in the state will be open to fishing from April 1 to June 15. However, protected fish must not be taken. Separate laws govern these cases. Such fish as carp, suckers and perch may be caught during this six week period in the exempted lakes. A petition has been sent the Department asking for the opening of Lake Michigan for spring fishing.

Candidates may pussyfoot on some issues but they are all willing to come out with a straightforward declaration for swatting the fly.

SEE ALFALFA SEED AS FUTURE STATE CROP

MICHIGAN GROWERS ARE HAVING SUCCESS WITH NEW VENTURE—PRODUCTION ON INCREASE

East Lansing, March 26.—Alfalfa seed growing in Michigan will probably soon be established on a permanent and dependable basis. This is the opinion of the farm crops department at M. S. C., based on the experiences of farmers during the past three years and a few isolated instances that date back as far as 30 years.

H. C. Rather, of the farm crops department, states that 673 bushels of alfalfa seed were certified last year by the Michigan Crop Improvement Association. He estimates that this amount is less than one-eighth of the total production of about 4,500 bushels grown in the state last year, which will plant approximately 27,000 acres.

There are two things which Michigan alfalfa seed growers must keep in mind, says Mr. Rather. "One is to watch the bloom in order to determine whether or not it will set seed satisfactorily. The other is to keep seed-producing fields free from weeds."

"If the weather is reasonably light and clear, the alfalfa may be allowed to come into full bloom. If more than half of the blossoms are forming into seed pods, the stand may be allowed to go to seed with reasonable assurance of success. In case the majority of the blossoms are slipping off, the alfalfa may still be cut for hay and the value of the crop saved."

"In southern Michigan the opportunity to secure seed is presented in both the first and second cuttings, while in northern Michigan the first cutting must be depended upon for the seed crop."

DEER IN FINE CONDITION

Deer in Michigan, suffered very little during the winter, representatives of the State Department of Conservation have reported. Apparently, natural food has been plentiful for the animals appear to be sleek and well fed. One report comes from the large deer yard near Hurlburt in the Upper Peninsula. While there are a number of deer in this yard, only two animals were seen to be in poor condition and this was due to the fact that one had been shot through the jaw by some hunter during the last hunting season and another had a leg partly shot away.

The Department keeps close check on all the larger yards throughout the winter so that it has definite information as to the welfare of the deer.

"TIMBER GROWING AND LOGGING" PRACTICE IN THE "LAKE STATES"

The passage of forest tax laws in Michigan, Wisconsin, and Minnesota, and improved fire protection have done away with the most immediate obstacles to growing timber as a crop by private owners. The questions of HOW and WHAT WILL IT COST are timely and pressing. The bulletin tries to answer them.

Order your copy of Bulletin 1496, "Timber Growing and Logging in the Lake States," by returning this notice to United States Department of Agriculture, Office of Information, Washington, D. C.

The utensils need only be washed in hot soapy water, rinsed in clear hot water, and dried thoroughly. Don't scrape a tin sycuppan, even if food sticks to it. Scraping exposes the iron or steel surface underneath, which may rust. If food has dried on the utensil, fill it with a weak soda solution, heat for a few minutes, and then wash.

Wonder what the flying fish think when they see Lindy skimming over the ocean way above them.
